

How Can You Tell When God is Not Happy? - Isaiah 5

There are many people out there to-day, who think that they can do whatever they want to. They think that because we are now under the New Covenant, God's Grace lets them do anything, and if they say "Sorry", God has to forgive them, and turn a blind eye to what's going on. Nice try; and as they didn't get away with it under the Old Covenant, they won't get away with it under the New One either. Our Lord Jesus took apart those playing religious games, and I encourage you to study the account in Matthew 23. You will see that there is one main phrase; "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!" Paul addressed the early Church for their shallowness. Romans 6: 2 - God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? V15 - What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

So if we had to sum up what is going on, could we do it any better than Paul? Galatians 3: 1 - O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

So the question is; How can you tell when God is not happy with what's going on? Our Lord God warned His people as they came out of Egypt. You can find the account in Leviticus 26.

And you will see how many times Our Lord God tries to restore them; but they refuse. And there is a specific passage where it tells what will happen when Our Lord says; Enough of this foolishness. But let us not overlook where it starts. 1 Peter 4: 17 - For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

So the question is; how can you tell when God is not happy with what's going on? Isaiah 5: 1 to 30 - "1 Now will I sing to my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill: 2 And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes. 3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard. 4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes? 5 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down: 6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. 7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry. 8 Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth! 9 In mine ears said the LORD of hosts, Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant. 10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah. 11 Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them! 12 And the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands. 13 Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge: & their honourable men are famished, & their multitude dried up with thirst. 14 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it. 15 And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled: 16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness. 17 Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of the fat ones shall strangers eat. 18 Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope: 19 That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it! 20 Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! 21 Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! 22 Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink: 23 Which justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him! 24 Therefore as the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. 25 Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and their carcasses were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. 26 And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss unto them from the end of the earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly: 27 None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken: 28 Whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind: 29 Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions: yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it. 30 And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea: and if one look unto the land, behold darkness & sorrow, & the light is darkened in the heavens thereof.

And for those who think that Our Lord will not do that to us; please reconsider while there's still time; and repent. Have you not noticed how many churches are being damaged in storms this year? Why was the tenth anniversary not held in that big church in New York? There was that earthquake one week before that damaged it so much that it wasn't safe to go in. I believe that we have entered into this last phase. The devil will tell us to give up, as it's all over. Don't believe him; don't despair.

Our Lord is calling His People to rally around the standard, and like the old Roman warships when nearing the enemy, would go into ramming speed to destroy them; let us with our superior weapons, storm the fortresses of darkness and pull them down.
